

GUNS N' ROSES TRIBUTE BAND

DUST N' BONES was formed in March, 2004. with the mission to play the songs of the most dangerous band of rock n' roll history – GUNS N' ROSES – as faithfully as possible.

The band plays material from the most successful era of GN'R from the beginning (1986) to the last gig of the classic lineup (1993).

During their live shows creating the accurate sound of GN'R, as well as the real Guns N' Roses experience, is more important than simply copying the look of the original members. During their career they have performed shows in more than 13 different countries, played at some of the biggest festivals (eg. SZIGET FESTIVAL/BUDAPEST and DONAUINSEL FESTIVAL/VIENNA) and performed in major clubs all over Europe, such as PLANET MUSIC/VIENNA (A), LIVE CLUB/MILANO (I), SIN CITY/ATHENS (GR) or BARBA NEGRA MUSIC CLUB/BUDAPEST (H).

In 2013, the founder singer-frontman - László Berényi, Torkos - left the band due to his move to England, and the following singer, Sidd also left in 2021. But the band didn't give up, they looked for and found a new singer - Viktor Varga, Vic -, with his young and fresh attitude.

Unfortunately, the Covid pandemia and the recent member exchange have forced the band into two years break, but can't wait to hit the road again and do what they do best: entertain the audience with the best songs from Guns N' Roses.
